How to Ride Campus Buses and Vans

- Buses typically stop at designated points. However, drivers do consider all student request and do drop off at other locations on campus when possible and feasible.
- Wait to board bus until all riders have exited the bus
- To indicate that you need to depart the bus, please alert the driver verbally and in a calm fashion or communicate your needs when boarding the bus. Allow the bus to come to a complete stop before you stand up or attempt to exit.
- If you have questions about your trip, ask the driver

Annual Information for Travel:

The shuttle routes begin on the first day of school in August and end on the last day of school in May annually. During the summer months, group travel must be scheduled by calling 501-450-3196 and speaking to the travel scheduler.
